“You can’t make more time, but you can make the most of your time.”

Lynda and Carissa are disrupting how Houston families manage their homelife. Bevy solves the real-world challenges of how to gain back time. With a background in software and finance, Lynda is a seasoned executive and founder of multiple start-up companies. Carissa is a creative, dynamic leader and has been a critical member of launch teams with Lynda for the past ten years. Together they are Bevy, curing the chaos one household at a time.

How do you define success? Success is ending every week feeling accomplished and satisfied. Each day may have its ups and downs, but if we can end proud of our impact on our family, friends, team and our clients – then that is a prosperous week.

What is your personal mission statement? Never stop. Never stop learning, never stop trying, never stop asking for help and never stop giving. We are all capable of amazing things.

Please describe your life in four words. Hectic, Beautiful, Full and Laughter.

What is the most rewarding part of your career? The opportunity to change how women and families manage the stress of their home and helping them find time to spend with their loved ones and live their best life.
